THOUGHT OF THE DAY

Your positive action combined with positive thinking results in success.

Shiv Khera

Week of June 5-9, 2017

Attention all students. If you are going to study at a Dearborn Public Library, (Henry Ford Centennial, Esper, Bryant, etc) there are new rules. All students under the age of 18 are required to have parental supervision. For every four students, one parent must stay. The parent must sign a form agreeing to be responsible for the four students. In addition, all students must show a school ID or other valid photo to enter the building. These guidelines are in place because of the disruption caused by students in the past.

Rehearsal for all commencement marshals will be today at 2:30 in the auditorium. Marshals must attend.
