THOUGHT OF THE DAY

Step with care and great tact, and remember that Life's a Great Balancing Act.

Dr. Seuss

Week of September 12-16 2016

Check out the new web site on Fordson sports. At www.fordsonathletics.com students, teachers and parents can follow all our sports teams, and can even sign up for text and email alerts. Schedules, rosters, pictures, and highlights will be available.

Homecoming dance tickets will be on sale today through September 29th before and after school at the tractor. Students from other schools need prior authorization to attend. Tickets are $25 each. The dance is Saturday, October 1st from 7-10:30.

Co-op students: This is a reminder that your training agreement, contract, and paycheck or paystub are due today. Please turn them in at the co-op door. If you have any questions, email Mrs. Ferris.

Anyone who had Mrs. Johnson last year please pick up your Math Rule & Reminder Book in A 98.

If you have an interest in being in front of the camera, behind the camera, on the stage, or behind the stage, please attend this year's initial meeting of the Performing Arts club. We will meet today at 2:30 in room A100. If you can't attend, but are still interested, please see Ms. Kanniainen in room A100.

Picture day is Monday, September 19th. Pictures will be taken during your Language Arts Class. Please bring your completed picture form with you on Monday.

The first Interact meeting will be held on Tuesday, September 20th in room A101. We will be discussing our upcoming annual Pink Out competition against Crestwood as well as Feed the World Day volunteer opportunities. New members are always welcome. See Ms. Naura or Mrs. Ayoub with any questions.

The Dearborn Public Schools is partnering with MACRAO (Michigan Association of Collegiate Registrars & Admissions Officers) to host a College Fair on Tuesday, September 20th, 6:30-8 p.m. All students are welcome to attend this free event at the Ford Community and Performing Arts Center. Representatives from more than 60 different universities, colleges, trade schools, law enforcement agencies, and U.S. Armed Forces will be available to talk directly with students.

The first Arab Student Union meeting will be held afterschool on Wednesday September 21st in room A120. The ASU offers a unique experience: promoting social, cultural, and political awareness. Be a part of the revolution and have your voice as youth heard! Plus there's plenty of volunteer hour opportunities!

Thursday, September 22nd will be the first Key Club meeting in the cafe starting at 2:30pm. For further questions see Ms. Zriek in room F201.

Yearbooks are now on sale for $70 with 4 free icons until September 30th. Get your yearbook now at the cheapest rate it will be all year! See Mrs. Kubitz in C203 before 1st hour or during all 3 lunches. Don't miss out on this great offer and a lifetime of memories.

The Arab American Museum will bring together 40 young women who are interested in film making, 20 from metro Detroit and 20 from East Jerusalem. Participants will learn the art of film making, through a 20-week intensive program that includes technical skill-building in film production, facilitated dialogues on identity and gender empowerment, and participation in an immersive cultural exchange via social media and public programming. Application deadline is Monday October 3rd at 5:00PM. More information: <http://www.arabamericanmuseum.org/reel-stories>
